Num. 320

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22. 1737.

910.518.

Yesterday arrived one of the two Mails then due from Holland, and one from Flanders.

HEY write from Petersburg, that the Velt Marshal Count de Munich, is set out for the Army. Before he went, the Czarina made him a Present of certain Lands in Ingermania and Livonia; (of which he had only the Profits hitherto) to him and his Heirs for ever, besides giving him a certain Lordship in the Ukraïn, which belong'd to the late General de Weisbach, for his Life. The Russian Army which is to appear in the Field next Campaign, is said to be the finest that was ever seen in that Country, and the most numerous, it being to consist of above 200,000 Men, including the Cossacks and Calmucks. Prince Anthony Ulrick of Wolfenbuttel, has obtained the Czarina's Leave to make the Campaign as a Volunteer, and her Majesty has had the Goodness to acquaint him, that she will bespeak his Equipage, and name the Persons that shall go with him. Besides certain Parties that are to be detach'd to the Army from the Foot Guards, a Detachment will be likewise sent of 300 Horse Guards, who are to serve at the same time, as Guards to the Count de Munich.

These Letters add, that the Czarina having just Grounds to be offended with the Gallitzin Family, her Council have pass'd a Sentence, whereby Prince Demetrius Michaelowitz Gallitzin, who is already very old, is condemn'd to Banishment. The Prince Michael Michaelowitz, his Brother, Vice President of the Admiralty at Petersburg, has been oblig'd to retire from Court and go to Alop, where he is to have the Direction of the Armament sitting out there for the Black Sea. The Chamberlain de Gallitzin is also sent away, after having declined going to Court for two Days together. 'Tis affirm'd, that two other Princes of that Name and Family, are sent to distant Parts; the one of whom, was Ambassador in Persia, and lately Governor of Casan; and the other, President of the Chamber of Justice at Moscow. The Czarina's Reasons for proceeding thus towards that Family, are said to be very important, and of such a Nature, that her Imperial Majesty cannot exert that Clemency, to which she is naturally inclin'd.

The Imperial Court has sent Orders to M. Dahlmann, their Ambassador at the Porte, to repair to Beloka in Moravia, which is the Place the Grand Signior has fix'd on for commencing the Negotiations for a Peace with Russia; from which Court, Plenipotentiaries are also speedily expected at the same Place, in order, if possible, to conclude an accommodation before the Opening of the Campaign. The three Plenipotentiaries whom the Porte has appointed, are Ali Mustapha Effendi, President of the Chamber of Finances, and Mustapha Effendi, and Zeid Effendi, both Viziers of the Bench, or Secretaries of the Ottoman Chancery. Mean time given out, that the Grand Vizier takes no Resolutions on any Affairs of Importance, without consulting with a certain Renegade, one Ibrahim Effendi, in whom he places all his Confidence, and seems to be set on to persuade him to a War.

Letters from Hanover say, his Britannick Majesty declared the Lieutenant General de Pontpierre, Governor of Staden, near the Mouth of the Elbe; one of the Ministers, viz. the Baron de Dieden, who was formerly Envoy Extraordinary from that State to Vienna, died there the 4th Instant, so that the Baron de Loofs, Minister from the Kingdom of Poland, as Elector of Saxony, is coming from Dresden, by the Way of Hanover; and an Officer from the Prince of Orange, is gone to that Place for Stockholm, to execute a Commission of Importance at the Court of Sweden. They write from Venice, that all their Rivers are so low, and that the oldest Man alive there, does not remember so severe a Season, and hardly so dry a one; having not rain'd a Drop in those Parts for four Months together; yet they have frequent Storms of Wind. The Arrival of the Chevalier de Thoms as Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Prussia is confirm'd, with an Account of his having notified his Arrival in that Quality, to the most Serene Republick, and of his having visited and received Visits from the Ambassadors.

Letters from Leghorn say, they have Advice from Corsica, that the Sieur Rivarola, the Genoese Governor of that Island, having sent 500 Men from Bastia to ruin the Rebels Country, they were surrounded and attack'd by a great Number of the latter, and above 400 of 'em taken Prisoners or killed.

The States General have appointed the 9th of March next, O. S. to be celebrated in all the Churches of the Seven Provinces, as a Day of Thanksgiving, Fasting and Prayer.

Edinburgh, Feb. 15. We learn from Inverness, that the 22d of last Month died Mrs. Christian Mackintosh, Spouse to the Hon. William Mackintosh of that Ilk, and Sister to the Hon. Sir Robert Menzies, of Menzies, Bart. The general Concern felt for her early Death, is a sufficient Proof how amiable a Character she bore during her Life. She was interred on the 2d Inst. in the Chapel of Petty, the burial Place of the Family of Mackintosh, with all the Marks of Respect that were due to so virtuous and valuable a Lady.

John Caldwell, formerly a Soldier, was last Week indicted for robbing the Mail from Glasgow sometime ago, and wounding the Post Boy, who soon after died.

Thursday last about Nine People of this City, Dalkeith and Leith, were convey'd before the Justices of the Peace here, for retailing spirituous Liquors contrary to Law, some of whom were convicted, and are to receive Sentence next Thursday, when the Trial of the others is to come on.

'Tis said, that a Messenger arrived here last Night with an Order from the House of Peers, for the Attendance of the Right Hon. the Lord Provost, and last Year's Magistrates of this City, on that House, and likewise for the Officer who commanded the City Guard on the Night that Captain Porteous was murder'd by the Mob.

Sunday Night the Biddiford Man of War came up to the Road of Leith.

Exon, Feb. 18. On Monday died the Wife of the Rev. Mr. Archdeacon Grant: She was Daughter of the present Bishop of this Diocese.

On Tuesday Mr. Brayne was chosen into the Chamber.

John Hayward of this City, was this Week committed to South Gate for Coining.

Eleven Gypsies are sent to the House of Correction in St. Thomas; — as are three Seamen to South Gate, on Suspicion of Travelling with a false Pass.

Worcester, Feb. 17. On Monday last a Scotch Pedlar was taken up out of a Pond in the Parish of Sawford, Warwickshire, five Miles from Evesham, having his Throat cut from Ear to Ear, and several Wounds about him, as if the Murderer had thrust him under the Water with a Sheephook. There is a Fellow in the Neighbourhood taken up on a violent Suspicion of committing the said Murder. The Scotchman's Pack was found in a Brake near the Pond. 'Tis supposed he had lain there ever since Candlemas Eve, being missing since that Time. He was going to Evesham Fair, that falls on Candlemas Day.

We have this Day so great a Hurricane here, that People scarce venture to walk the Streets, for fear of being knock'd on the Head by the falling of Tiles from the Houses, if not the Houses themselves, which even shake.

Bristol, Feb. 19. Since the barbarous Treatment, and Robbery of Mr. Ballard, Surgeon of Paulbury, by two Ruffians in the Wood above Roundham Passage, here has been the Devil of a Blow among the Sodomitical Black Gang, occasioned by the apprehending two Persons on Suspicion of that Robbery, last Saturday, by Mr. Lewis, Boat-builder, and Mr. Owen, of this City.

Mr. Lewis having read their Description in the Bristol Paper of the 29th ult. and seeing the above Persons standing with another of their Companions, at or near Stokes Croft, who answering to Particulars therein mention'd, by their Dress and Physiognomy it put Mr. Lewis and his Friend on a Resolution of seizing them; but those Chaps suspecting the Design, said, they are talking of us, let us make off, verifying the true Saying, a guilty Conscience needs no Accuser, and took to their Heels with Precipitation, but were closely follow'd, and after several Dodgings and Windings through narrow Dingles, two of them were taken. Being carried to the Council-House, upon Examination and Search, they appear'd, to the Surprise of the Magistrates, to be of the Black Gang, and lately come from London. Among their Papers were found a List of those Hell-Cats, with their proper Names and effeminate Titles; and some of them appear to be topping, thumping. He judging Quality of the first Rank in Lucifer's Class; but particularly that old Offender, Edwards, is among them; and a Letter found, dated that Day, directed to this Wretch, and was intended to be dispatch'd that Afternoon; which for its peculiar Style, and Invitation to this pretty Creature, we hear give an Extract of it.

To THOMAS EDWARDS, Esq; at Frampton.

Dear Friend and Loving Sister,

'We thank you for all past Favours, especially for the last at your House. We got home very safe that Night, and are now bound for London: We wou'd willingly see you before we go, and care's one the other: We are three of us, you shall have your Choice; two are clean, wholesome, young, smooth fac'd Fellows, well dress'd, either of whom you shall have your Will. Pray appoint the Day, because we will be at home. Our Lodgings are private, at — in St. James's Church-yard, and a private Room to ourselves. We beg you to bring some Money with you (as being Church-warden it will be nothing out of your Way) to bear our Charges to London. You need not be afraid to send an Answer by the Bearer, because he can neither write nor read. So I remain,

Your once adapted, and loving Spouse,

Thomas Rogers alias Mary Fly.

As they are now pretty well known, both by their Real and Cant Names, there is some Hopes that a List will appear to the World in a proper Delineation, that other Persons may be aware of such Vermin, and prevent a Suspicion by herding with such Swine.

Mr. Ballard has confronted the two Fellows in Custody; but has not sworn to either; tho' he believes one of them, Thomas Rogers, to be the Person that held up his Leg in the Wood when he was knock'd down and robbed, and has desired their further Detention in Prison; and we hear, for other Reasons, they will not be parted with in Halle; tho' as they are of such a Tribe, some People are dubious whether they are the Assassins, on Account of the Effemacy and unnatural Cowardise of those Female-Creatures.

Since that Robbery, a Letter has been thrown over Capt. Edgley's Garden Wall at Ham Green, wherein are incendiary Threatnings against Sir John Smyth, Bart. and Capt. Webb, for their Assiduities, in sending their Servants to search the Wood for the two Robbers, menacing to this Effect, That had they known Mr. Ballard would have made such a Stir, about such a Sum as 44l. 6s. 6d. they would have taken particular Care to lay him more quiet; tho' they thought to have had a better Booty had Capt. Webb fell in their Way; but as he, and Sir John, had been thus busy, they would next Fair bring down Auxiliaries from London, in hopes of making a better Market.

At the Sessions last Wednesday, Josiah King, and Samuel Pepper, were found guilty of stealing two Hand Vices, and ordered to be transported, and Jane Cary, of stealing 30 lb. of Tobacco, order'd to be whipt.

Canterbury, Feb. 19. On Wednesday last the Right Rev. Father in God Dr. John Potter, Lord Bishop of Oxford, was elected and chosen Archbishop of Canterbury, by the Dean and Chapter of this Church; who have given the Living of Holy Croft, Wellingborough, with the Rectory of St Peter's annexed, to the Rev.

Rev. Thomas Buttenshaw, M. A. one of their Minor Canons, being void by the Death of Mr. Charles Kilburne; and they have given to the Rev. Robert Jenkin, M. A. one of their Minor Canons, and Rector of Westbere, the Living of Brookland in the Marsh, which the said Mr. Buttenshaw will resign. And they have also chosen the Rev. Mr. Brodcep to be a Minor Canon in the room of Mr. Kilburne, deceased.

N. B. The two Paragraphs in Yesterday's Paper relating to Queen Anne's Civil List, which were by Mistake joined to the initiatory Letter, should have been under the Article of London News.

L O N D O N.

Yesterday was a great Council at St. James's, when his Majesty, with his own Hand, delivered the Great Seal to the Right Hon. the Lord Chief Justice Hardwicke: And he was sworn into that high Office in the Presence of his Majesty. After which, he took his Place, with the usual Formality, in the House of Peers.

His Lordship on the Occasion, had the Honour to kiss their Majesties Hands, as also the Hands of their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and the rest of the Royal Family.

And we hear his Lordship has appointed the Hon. Phillip Yorke, Esq; his eldest Son, to be Purse Bearer, and Mr. Shudall to be Deputy Purse Bearer, and Mr. Lloyd to be his Lordship's Train Bearer.

Early Yesterday Morning died Sir Robert Cowan, Knight, chosen about Ten Days ago Member of Parliament for the Borough of Tregony, in the County of Cornwall, and took his Seat for the said Borough last Week.

Yesterday died at his House at Charlton in Kent, John Griffin, Esq; a young Gentleman of a plentiful Estate.

The same Day his Grace the Duke of Richmond came to his House in Privy Garden, Whitehall, from his Seat at Goodwood, in the County of Suffex.

Yesterday William Bromley, Esq; took the Oaths and his Seat as Member for the University of Oxford, in the room of Dr. Clarke, deceased.

His Grace the most Reverend Dr. John Potter, Archbishop of Canterbury, paid his Homage to his Majesty last Night.

Last Night died Mr. Birmingham, a noted and eminent Surveyor of Buildings.

AS there is still great Reason to believe that Kelly has not yet got out of England: All Officers of the Customs or Excise, all Masters of Ships, or Fishing Boats and others, are desired to remember, that there is a Reward of Three Hundred Pounds offered for taking him: And that the said Kelly is about Fifty Years of Age, 5 Foot 10 Inches high, fair Complexion, large grey Eyes, a broad Face, his Hair grey, the upper Part of his Head bald, his two fore Teeth above, large, and his Legs long and small.

Note, The said Kelly broke his Word and Honour with the Officers of the Tower, which he had given under his Hand, and can be produced.
